Today's Message Going Second Miles To Give Second Chances

Guest Speaker: Dr. Jeffrey Kreh

In the beginning, God passed judgment on creation and called it good — very good. Then humans chose to violate the will, nature, and very image of God. This choice made the first humans incompatible with their own created image. Like oil and water, the perfect image of God rejected the imperfect image of humans—casting humans into the prison that waited outside Eden. However, from before the beginning, God planned to give humans a second chance through the Lord's Church. The whole story, from the expulsion to the Revelation victory scene shows humans that the Father of Jesus is a God of second chances. And that's good news!

The Gospel is simply this: the author of eternal life died so that the dead can live eternally. There is no bargain in the world that compares with trading our miserable life in sin for the joyous life in Christ. This morning, if you have never come to Christ on Christ's terms; if you have never admitted that you are spiritually dead and cannot do anything spiritual to bring yourself back to life; if you have never believed in Jesus as the living Son of God, calling on his name, and submitting to his death, burial, and resurrection in the waters of baptism, then maybe it's time to thank God for going the second mile just to give you a second chance at eternal life. If you have already done this, then maybe there are ways that you can show your gratitude to God; maybe you can go the second mile and help others to see the beautiful simplicity of the Gospel.
